

VALREA steps in all stages to materialized your project

Construction Project Management / BOP Turnkey

Wholly-owned subsidiary of VALOREM, VALREA valorized over 20 years experiences in sustainable projects development, conciliating ethic, technical and economic requirements. With missions on more than 900 MW since its start up in 2007, VALREA has supervised no less than 73 windfarm constructions, taking in few years time, a significant place in the emergent market of sustainable energy power stations.

Laying the construction site

A site construction well prepared to minimize risks and optimize the project

- Support in strategy and technical needs
- Constraints identification to optimize the project in technical and economical aspects
- Supervising the preliminary technical studies (ground & access studies, technical inspection, etc...)
- Set up an organizational structure and fix the project management tools
- Drawing up a budget and plan the construction projected

Works market transfer

Drafting a reliable and complete work contracts

- Negotiating and choosing the competent companies
- Advising in terms of market devolution
- Drafting each part work contracts
- Selecting and auditing the competent companies
- Organizing and managing the invitations to tender
- Finalizing the work contracts

Works supervising

Works coordination and site supervision

- Organizing, scheduling and coordinating the different companies on site
- Watching out for the contract respect on site about construction quality, deadlines, costs, invoicing, security, environment, etc...
- Handling the hazards and works alterations
- Validating the execution plan provided by the companies
- Leading works meetings
- Doing the administrative procedures
- Managing local relationship

Works reception

Delivering a complete construction and a well installation site

- Organizing the preliminary reception
- Supervision of the acceptance
- Examining the "executed works files"

Additional missions to the assistance contracting owner

- Assistance in the construction commissioning
- Assistance in obtaining the agreements and contracts necessary to the electrical and telecom connections
- Definition of the cadastral division
- Redaction and signature support in leases and land agreements
- Information and communication to the farmers, neighbors, officials and local administrations
- Optimization of the electrical cable layout and support in its authorization obtention
- Calculation of the HT cable section and losses optimization
- Work costs estimation in each project stage
- Project audit
- Personalized service on demand

VALREA SAS

213 cours Victor Hugo
33 323 BEGLES cedex

contact@valrea.fr
www.valrea.fr