

Date d'édition : 29/05/2019

Company

VALOREM is a vertically-integrated green energy operator (226 people and 5 subsidiaries), offering a range of renewable energy solutions while guiding and supporting local authorities and its partners at every stage of a project: surveys, development, financing, construction, operational oversight and maintenance. Its headquarters and principal entities are located in Bègles, France.

In Finland, Valorem is currently involved in a number of projects (+500 MW under development and 70 MW under construction).

Job Purpose

Valorem is hiring a Country Manager to manage various strategic development projects in order to support Valorem's international growth.

The successful candidate will be a hands-on, highly skilled professional with a combination of technical experience, managing multi-disciplinary team activities and strong client relationship skills. Must also be proficient in project proposal and business development leadership skills. The Country Manager will develop strategies, effectively manage multiple projects and engage the market.

The position is located in Finland.

Essential Functions

- Build and maintain strong relationships with his local partners to ensure that deliverables meet or exceed the client's expectations.
- Management of the local entity and the local team
- Manage projects from initiation to completion, including scope, contracts, schedule, and budgets;
- Support and develop tracking and reporting for new initiatives;
- Strategic and tactical business development planning and execution
- Help develop strategies, effectively manage multiple projects and their rentability, and engage the market.
- Provides reporting and ensures that procedures and practices are followed in accordance with our policy.

Education and Qualifications

- B.S. in Electrical/Mechanical Engineering required with minimum 5 years of project management experience in Renewable Energy sector in Finland (Wind)
- Management skills, knowledge of the Finnish energy market.
- Finnish energy network
- Languages: Finnish & English essential. Fluency in French is an asset.

Work Environment

Location: Helsinki, Finland + regular business trips to France and Europe.

Contract: Full time

Package: to negotiate

Submission of applications: <http://www.valorem-energie.com/groupe/valorem-recrute/>

Website: www.valorem-energie.com