

Date d'édition : 26/04/2019

Company

VALOREM is a vertically-integrated green energy operator (226 people and 5 subsidiaries), offering a range of renewable energy solutions while guiding and supporting local authorities and its partners at every stage of a project: surveys, development, financing, construction, operational oversight and maintenance. Its headquarters and principal entities are located in Bègles (Gironde).

Job Purpose

Valorem is hiring a Project Manager to assist the Country Manager in the development of renewable energy projects in Greece.

Essential Functions

- Development and management of renewable energy projects
- Technical and regulatory guidance in support of permit applications of renewable energy projects (Mainly Wind and PV projects), including the environmental permitting process.
- Undertakes written and oral communications with the relevant authorities and management of external third parties to carry out studies, as part of the authorization processes
- Usually working on several projects (wind, solar or other renewable technologies). Interaction with teams and players throughout the development cycle
- Identifies, mobilizes and manages the necessary resources, internal and/or external, around the projects (colleagues of the group or partners) within the given deadlines. Negotiates and contracts, in connection with support services, the interventions of external resources.
- Promotes projects to gain the support of stakeholders, organizes local consultation / communication and defends the interests of the projects. Enhances the group's image and its development strategy.

Education and Qualifications

- Electrical or Mechanical Engineer (5 years Polytechnic level) or other engineering studies coupled with concrete experience in the requested lines.
- Minimum 2 years of experience in the Renewable Energy sector in Greece (Wind & PV).
- Knowledge of the competent Greek administration bureaucracy for renewable energy projects is an asset (RAE, Ministry of the Environment, DEDDIE, ADMIE, decentralized authorities, municipal and peripheral procedures, etc.)
- Ability to read and interpret documents such as government regulations, engineering documents, maps and various manuals
- Languages: Greek & English essential. French is an asset.

Work Environment

Location: Athens, Greece

Contract: Full time

Package: to negotiate

Submission of applications: <http://www.valorem-energie.com/groupe/valorem-recrute/>

Website: www.valorem-energie.com